ENDEMPTION OF THE BONDS OF 1951.

In the case of Savage, executrix, against the United States, the claim was for the difference between gold and bonds of the United States mon the surrender of certain bonds of the loan of 1861, taken by the plaintiff's husband. Savage insisted that he was entitled to gold; that Jay Cooke & Co., who negotiated the loan, advertised that the bonds would be paid in gold. He, however, surrendered his bonds and accepted Treasury notes, entering a protest. The court held that the voluntary acceptance of the Treasury notes and the surrender of the bonds released the Government, and that the protest is insufficient to qualify the effect of the waiver evidenced by the acceptance. Such a protest, being unauthorized by law, is a mere experience to experience the question whether the bonds ought to be paid in gold did not arise, as the case made did not require its decision. Mr. Justice Clifford delivered the opinion. EXPENSION OF THE BOXDS OF 1551.

The vibounta tobacco-tax case.

In the case of Pace against Burgess, collector of internal revenue, the action was to recover duties paid by Pace on packages of tobacco for export, en the ground that the tax was unconstitutional and void, the Federal Constitution having declared that no tax or duty shall be laid on articles exported from any State. The Court, however, find that the stamp was intended for no other purpose than to separate and identify the packages which the manufacturer intended to export, and thereby, instead of taxing it, to relieve it from taxation to which all other tobacco was subjected. It was a means devised to prevent fraud and secure the faithful carrying out of the declared intent to export. Mr. Justice Bradley delivered the opinion.

ALEXANDRIA LAWFULLYA FORTION OF VIRGINIA. ALEXANDRIA LAWPULLY A PORTION OF VIRGINIA

ALEXANDRIA LAWFULLY A PORTION OF VIRGINIA.

In the case of Phillips against Payne, yesterday decided in the Supreme, Court, the question was upon the validity of the retrocession of Alexandria to the State of Virginia. The Court held the retrocession to have been a political act of the United States and the State of Virginia, concurred in by both governments since it was effected, Virginia all the white retaining unchallenged possession; that a de facto government, in undisputed possession, has the same rights as a government de jure, and its authority cannot be questioned in such a way. The plaintiff is estopped to raise the question, and the court is concluded by the action of the political department. Mr. Justice Swayne delivered the spinion of the coert. Court in General Term.
